Celebrating its 10th Anniversary in 2019

STUDIO CITY, CA – November 26, 2019 – Carly Pope ("Suits") and Kristoffer Polaha ("Condor") star as co-workers competing for a promotion but brought together amidst the celebration of both Hanukkah and Christmas, in "Double Holiday," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, December 21 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel as part of the network's beloved, number one-rated programming event, "Countdown to Christmas," which celebrates its tenth anniversary this year. Hallmark Channel is historically the #1 television network in all of Q4.

Career-minded real estate project manager Rebecca Hoffman's (Pope) plans for celebrating Hanukkah with her family don't go as expected when a promotion opportunity comes up at work. As Hanukkah is beginning, the company's CEO asks Rebecca and Chris (Polaha) – her insufferable office mate and main competition for the promotion – to plan the company's upcoming Christmas party, which is more important than usual with a major new client hanging in the balance. She's not thrilled about being paired with him but realizes they must overcome their opposing styles in order to succeed. As their planning progresses, Chris embraces Rebecca and her family's Hanukkah traditions as he learns about them when he joins their nightly celebrations. In turn, Rebecca begins to see him in a new light as they spend time together away from the office. Although feelings slowly develop between the two, the ongoing competition for the promotion – along with another suitor for Rebecca – threatens to douse the flames that are beginning to glow. But the night of the party, Chris makes a grand gesture that just may win her heart.

"Double Holiday" is produced by Muse Entertainment. Joel Rice and Jonas Prupas serve as executive producer. Shane Boucher is the producer. Don McBrearty directed from a script by Nina Weinman.
