STUDIO CITY, CA – September 30, 2020 – Laura Osnes ("In the Key of Love") and Aaron Tveit (Les Miserables) star in "One Royal Holiday," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, October 31 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel as part of the network's annual, "Countdown to Christmas" programming event – your home for the holiday.

Just before a Christmas blizzard hits, Anna (Osnes) offers a suddenly-stranded mother (Victoria Clark, "Homeland") and son (Tveit) a place to stay — at her father's (Tom McGowan, "Everybody Loves Raymond") B&B in rural Connecticut. What Anna doesn't yet know is that Gabriella and James are, in fact, the Royal Family of Galwick. What begins as a "one night" stay keeps extending as Anna and Prince James unexpectedly begin to fall in love. While Prince James is used to drab holidays filled with high-pressure speeches, protocol and formality, Anna shows him how they do Christmas in her charming hometown of Kentsbury, encouraging him to open his heart and be true to himself. James helps Anna believe in fate – and in herself – just in time for the Kentsbury Christmas Eve Ball.

"One Royal Holiday" is produced by Synthetic Cinema International. Andrew Gernhard, Colin Theys and Molly Mayeux are producers. Dustin Rikert directed from a script by Julia Sherman Wolfe.
