

THE O'BRIEN FAMILY RETURNS ON SUNDAYS!

ABBY FACES A FUTURE ON HER OWN TERMS
ON 'CHESAPEAKE SHORES'
PREMIERING AUGUST 22, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – July 21, 2021 – “Chesapeake Shores” says goodbye to one of its own in the episode “Nice Work If You Can Get It,” premiering Sunday, August 22 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel. Jesse Metcalfe (“Desperate Housewives”), Meghan Ory (“Once Upon a Time”), Treat Williams (“Blue Bloods,” Hair), Barbara Niven (“The Crossword Mysteries”), Laci J. Mailey (“Falling Skies”), Emilie Ullerup (“Sanctuary”), Brendan Penny (“BH90210”) and Andrew Francis (“Christmas She Wrote”) star.

Abby (Ory) reflects on her last conversation with Trace (Metcalfe) and contemplates a future on her own terms. With Abby officially onboard as Mick’s (Treat Williams) business partner, things are off to a rocky start when the impending lawsuit with Dilpher (Aurelio Dinunzio, “Love Happens”) scares off some of their clients. Bree (Ullerup) interviews for a teaching job with her high school nemesis Jerry (Matthew Kevin Anderson, “Impastor”) and things don’t go as expected. Jess (Mailey) doesn’t know what to make of the gift that David’s (Carlo Marks, “Smallville”) mom left for her after presenting her with a shocking legal document. Kevin (Penny) runs into Luke (Stephen Huszar, “Time for Us to Come Home for Christmas”), an old high school friend facing hard times.

“Chesapeake Shores” is a Chesapeake Shores S5 Production Inc. production, in association with Daniel L. Paulson Entertainment. Dan Paulson, Matt Drake, Phoef Sutton, Nancey Silvers and Sherryl Woods are the executive producers. Steve Kennedy, Ben Mallin, Mark Jordan Legan, and Brian Ross are co-executive producers. Michael Robison directed from a script by Nancey Silvers.
