STUDIO CITY, CA – October 1 – Ashleigh Murray ("Riverdale") and Luke James (Little, Star), star in "Christmas in Harmony," alongside Loretta Devine (Queen Bees, Family Reunion) and Michelle Williams (Destiny's Child, The Masked Singer) a new, original movie premiering Saturday, October 29 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel as part of the network's annual "Countdown to Christmas" programming event, your home for the holiday.

A company merger pushes Harmony Matthews (Murray) out of a job at Suprasonic Records and back to her hometown. Mama (Devine) couldn't be more thrilled to have Harmony back home and to help with the church's annual Holiday Hallelujah Chorus. Celebrity Melo D Star (Williams) is a client of Harmony's and threatens to leave unless Harmony is back. Harmony has the perfect idea to showcase Melo D. Star and reinstate her career but when things go south, Harmony is tricked into auditioning for the lead solo in the chorus — directed by her scorned high school sweetheart, Kyle Noah (James). By Christmas Eve, Harmony and Kyle could be singing a different tune and harmonizing in the key of love.

"Christmas in Harmony" is from Christmas in Harmony LLC. Stan Spry and Eric Woods are executive producers. Anthony Fankhauser is co-executive producer. Rusty Cundeiff directed from a script by Jessiline Berry.
